MISCELLANEOUS EVENTS

TUTORIAL DISCUSSIONS (TDs):

Aim:

To provide enabling environment to participants for discussions in smaller groups with a view to afford them better opportunities of expressing their views on core issues vis-à-vis public policy and implementation process

Scope:

- In each term, the participants will be divided into 5 / 6 synds and each synd will have a Sponsor DS (Synd. DS)
- Each TD will be a structured one and on a specific topic, sponsored by a Faculty Member / DS
- All TDs will be held in designated Synd. Rooms (SRs) under the supervision / guidance of the designated Synd. DS

ANALYSIS PAPER (AP) AND ANALYSIS PAPER DE - BRIEFING (APDB)

Aim:

To provide the participants an opportunity to demonstrate their analytical skills. Progressive and logical development of thought in response to the requirement (the questions asked), brevity, specificity as against generalizations, coherence, conciseness and clarity are some of the qualities against which the participants' output is evaluated

Scope:

The scope of AP is as broad-based as Statecraft and Public Policy itself. Following are included in the scope of AP:

- An analysis of relevant extracts from the literature on Statecraft
- A review of any important domestic issue and its implication for Public Policy
- A constitutional or governance issue with far-reaching implications on Pakistan's national interest, aim and objectives
- A global event and its impact on Pakistan's Public Policy formulation and implementation
- An International Treaty or Agreement having an impact on Pakistan's Public Policy

Conduct of Aps:

APs are generally impromptu requirements. Participants will have to give policy input/options in writing. In AP- I, the response is restricted to 3-4 pages, in AP-II 5-6 pages and in AP - III 8-9 pages

Analysis Paper De-Briefing (APDB):

- After every AP, a de-briefing session will be conducted by the DSs
- Marked answer sheets will be given to respective participants for their information to discuss the requirement and the answers (possible policy options) offered by them
- The participants can give their input and recommendations on the conduct of AP
- After the de-briefing session, the marked APs will be returned to the DS conducting APDB
